Downing-Street, May 27, 1800.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been this Day received from William Wickham, Esq; His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary and Commissary at the Imperial Royal and Allied Armies, and from Lieutenant-Colonel Clinton, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Head-Quarters, Memmingen, May 10, 1800.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Army marched in the Course of the Night of the 6th to Langen Enslingen; the Enemy sent only a Detachment to observe the Movement of the Austrians on the Left of the Danube, and marched with the Main Body of his Army in a Direction which gave General Kray an Apprehension for his Communication with Lieutenant-General Prince Reuss in the Voralberg; to preserve which he hastened by a forced March, recrossing the Danube at Riedlingen to Biberach, which Place he reached in the Afternoon of the 8th. The Army took a Position behind the Riss. The Enemy however still had the Advance, and already occupied Waldsee. On the 9th, the Austrian Advanced Posts in Front of the Riss were vigorously attacked and driven in. General Kray, wishing to avoid engaging in a general Affair, fell back at Night to Ochsenhausen. Every Report of the Enemy stated that he was still marching by his Right. This Morning the Army crossed the Iller in Two Columns at Illerdissen; and near this Place the Troops had scarcely reached their Ground when the Enemy began a fresh Attack on the Left; at the same Time a Report was received, that a strong Column was on its March to Kempton. Everything announced on the Part of the Enemy the Intention of an Attack. General Kray therefore had determined to proceed to Ulm, where he will be joined by the Corps of General Stanai, consisting of Ten Battalions and a large Proportion of Cavalry, besides the Second Division of the Bavarians. The Affair of this Day, in which the Bavarians distinguished themselves much to the Satisfaction of General Kray, terminated in one of Advanced Posts.

I have the Honor to be, &c. H. CLINTON.

MY LORD, Donauwerth, May 13, 1800

I Have much Satisfaction in transmitting to your Lordship the enclosed Extract from the General Orders issued by the Commander in Chief of the Imperial Army on the 11th Instant, bearing the most honourable Testimony to the Conduct of the First Division of the Bavarian Troops in the Service of His Majesty, commanded by Colonel Baron de Wreede, acting as Brigadier General.

Too much cannot be said in Praise of the Exertions that have been made on this Occasion by their Serene Highness's the Elector of Bavaria and the Duke of Wurtemberg, to put the Subsidiary Troops in a Situation to take the Field, to hasten their March towards the Austrian Army, and in every Respect to fulfil and make good the Engagements they had severally contracted with His Majesty.

I am, &c. &c.

W. WICKHAM.

Extract from the General Orders of the Imperial and Royal Army in Germany.

THE Bavarian Troops distinguished themselves so much by their Bravery and their Steadiness in the Action of Yesterday, that I feel myself bound to give this public Assurance to their Commander Colonel Baron de Wreede, as well as to the Officers and the Whole Corps, not only that I am entirely satisfied with their Conduct, but that I owe them my very best Thanks, which I beg them to accept.

MY LORD, Donauwerth, May 13, 1800.

I Have the Satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that General Kray having been attacked on the 11th Instant on his March from Memmingen to Ulm, had repulsed the Enemy and driven him beyond Memmingen, where, in consequence of this Success, he left a considerable Corps under General Merfelde, who is charged to keep open the Communication with Prince Reuss in the Voralberg.

The main Army retired to Ulm, where it has effected its Junction with the Second Division of the Bavarian Subsidiary Army, and with General Starray.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

W. WICKHAM.

I Am happy to acquaint you for their Lordships' Information, that since I closed my Letter of the 28th of March, Five of the Enemy's small Privateers have been taken, the Pensée, of Four Guns and Sixty-five Men, and the Sapajon, of Six Guns and Forty-eight Men, by the Sans Pareil; the Renard, of Three Guns and Fifteen Men, and Consalateur, of One Gun and Thirty-six Men, by the Surinam and the Perseverance of Sixteen Guns and Eighty-seven Men, by the Unité; the last of which threw her Guns overboard during the Chace.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Beverley, in the East Riding of the County of York, in Common-Council assembled, truly sensible of the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's Paternal Government, beg Leave humbly to present ourselves to your Majesty, and with one Voice and one Heart to declare the Horror and Detestation which we feel that any Wretch should have been so daring as to lift up his impious Hand against your Majesty's Life; a Life so inestimably precious to all your People. But Thanks to that Almighty Being who governs the Universe, we still behold our beloved Sovereign, our common and tender Father, and fervently hope and pray that that same Divine Providence which has now preserved, will long, very long, protect your Majesty to reign over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-first Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

Timothy Lundie, Mayor.

[Transmitted to the Duke of Portland by Mr. Judson, Chamber Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twentieth Day of May in the Year One thousand and eight Hundred.

[Transmitted to the Duke of Portland by Lord Holmes.]

St. James's, May 23, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's Providential Escape from the late atrocious Attempt of a desperate Assassin.

After the long Series of Happiness we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot contemplate without the utmost Grief and Indignation, the Danger which so lately threatened the Life of our beloved Sovereign; a Sovereign endeared to a grateful People by the constant Exercise of every Quality that can adorn a private Character, and of every Virtue that can dignify his exalted Station.

Be assured Royal Sire, it shall be our constant Prayer to the Almighty, that every Danger which may hereafter threaten a Life so justly dear not only to theſe Kingdoms, but at this Criſis, to the Whole Chriſtian World, may be thus providentially averted, and that you may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Kingſton-upon-Hull, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight Hundred.

[Preſented by Samuel Thornton, M. P. for that Place.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of the Borough of Cricklade, and its Vicinity, beg Leave to declare our utmoſt Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our heartfelt Congratulation on your Majeſty's Providential Eſcape.

Impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and animated by that unfeigned Zeal and Affection ſo juſtly due to the Sovereign and Father of his People; we acknowledge with the livelieſt Gratitude the interpoſing Arm of the Almighty, and we earneſtly implore the King of Kings graciouſly to watch over a Life ſo dear to us, and to continue to your Majeſty through a long extended Reign, the moſt diſtinguiſhed Marks of his Divine Protection and Favor. Morgan Byrt, Bailiff.

Cricklade, May 20, 1800.

[Preſented by Lord Porcheſter and Mr. Eſtcourt.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs the Poignancy of our Feelings, on the atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; at the very mention of which our Minds were deeply affected with Aſtoniſhment and Horror; to aſſaſſinate the beſt of Kings, in the midſt of a loyal and affectionate People, is a Crime which the Power of Language is inadequate to deſcribe. But we turn from the Contemplation of an Act, the Perpetration of which would have produced the moſt fatal Calamities, to venerate the Hand of Almighty Providence, which has preſerved your Majeſty to be a Bleſſing to this Land, and to diſplay to ſurrounding Nations another ſignal Proof of the warm Attachment and Gratitude of the Britiſh Nation to a Monarch, who is the common Father and Friend of his People.

Signed at the Requeſt, and on the Behalf of the Inhabitants.

G. Knapp, Chairman.

[Preſented by Mr. Knapp, Mayor of Abingdon, attended by Mr. Loveden.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon, and to offer the ſincere Tribute of our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your invaluable Life was expoſed.

Inviolably attached to your Majeſty, by the high Conſideration of the numerous Bleſſings we enjoy under the paternal Care of your mild and equitable Government; and impreſſed with Veneration for thoſe illuſtrious Virtues, which endear the beſt of Sovereigns to a loyal and affectionate People, we cannot ſufficiently teſtify our Gratitude to Almighty God for this ſignal Interpoſition of his Divine Providence.

Amidſt the united Addreſſes of a grateful Empire, our Prayers aſcend with Fervency to Heaven, that the Almighty Governor of the Univerſe may continue to your Majeſty his Divine Protection, and long preſerve the Life of a Sovereign ſo precious to his Subjects, and that your Majeſty may ever live enthroned in the Hearts and Affections of your People.

Given under our common Seal, this Twentieth Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

By the Corporation,
John Travis, Town Clerk.

[Preſented by Lord Charles Somerſet.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the Eaſt Indies, beg Permiſſion to approach the Throne, and to offer our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, and to the People over whom you reign, on the Safety of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We humbly acknowledge our Gratitude to Heaven, in fruſtrating a late daring Attempt to deprive us of our King; and we truſt the Enemies of ſocial Order and good Government, will have their Eyes opened to this ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence, in the Protection of a Life ſo dear to us all.

But it is to be numbered among the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, that under the Guidance of that Being who bringeth forth Good from Evil, every hoſtile Attempt directed againſt our Happineſs has ſerved only to call forth the beſt Energies of your People.

Amidſt the general Anxiety of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to claim a grateful Intereſt in the Welfare and Happineſs of their beloved Monarch, permit us, Sire, to allude to events particularly intereſting to the Eaſt India Company; and which from the Nature of our Duty, have particularly attracted our Attention.

We cannot forget, Sire, that in your auſpicious Reign, with the Extenſion of the Britiſh Empire in India, the Glory of our National Character has been exalted; that where Tyranny has been defeated, Humanity has triumphed; that our Arms have conquered but to ſave; and that Loyalty and Affection for the Britiſh Government pervade thoſe Dominions which have been emphatically termed the brighteſt Jewel in the Britiſh Crown.

[Preſented by Colonel Scott, Deputy Chairman, attended by Colonel Roberts, Major Thornton, and Mr. Tatem.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Cardiff, and of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swanſea, Aberavon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher, and Lantriſſent, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that with the moſt ſincere Devotion, we offer up our Prayers and Thankſgiving to Almighty God for having ſo graciouſly extended his Mercy to all the Subjects of this Realm in protecting your ſacred Perſon from the wicked Deſigns of the only treacherous and deſperate Aſſaſſin, who can poſſibly be inſenſible of the Bleſſings every Briton has enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government during a long and glorious Reign; and whilſt thus we join in the univerſal Joy which muſt pervade every Part of this Kingdom, and indeed every Corner of the Earth, where the Influence of your Majeſty's Virtues are felt and acknowledged, we beg Permiſſion likewiſe, with the greateſt Humility, to offer our Congratulations in particular to her moſt ſacred Majeſty, and every Branch of the Royal Family, on the wicked Deſigns of this Aſſaſſin having been fruſtrated by the immediate Interpoſition of Providence.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Bute and Mr. Price.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in Common-Hall aſſembled, impreſſed with an awful Senſe of the Danger from which your Majeſty has recently been delivered, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne to offer our heartfelt Congratulations.

We know not whether to attribute the daring Act which endangered your Majeſty's ſacred Life to the moſt wicked of Deſigns, or to the heavieſt of Calamities, but the Defeat of the Attempt can be aſcribed only to the protecting Care of that Almighty Power, which has ſhewn ſo many ſignal Inſtances of a merciful Interpoſition of its Providence over the People of this Land.

Senſible how dear is our Sovereign to his Subjects, and how intereſting to their Welfare is his Life, we pray to God that He will continue it under his Almighty Protection.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of May One thouſand eight hundred.

William Biſhop, Mayor.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Smith and Lord Rancliffe, Members for Leiceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodſtock, in the County of Oxford, in Common-Council aſſembled, cannot refrain from approaching your Majeſty with our immediate and moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's being again made the eſpecial Care of Divine Providence by an Eſcape from an Attempt, atrocious and diabolical beyond Example, upon your Majeſty's auguſt and ſacred Life.

This our bounden Duty we feel impoſed upon us from Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family—of Attachment to our glorious and unrivalled Conſtitution in Church and State, which finds in your Majeſty an unwearied Protector, and from Conſiderations of the unſpeakable Importance of your Majeſty's Life and well-being to the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, and at the preſent Criſis, to the Welfare of the Whole Civilized World; and that your Majeſty's Magnanimity and Fortitude, and all other Virtues, public and private may be long exerciſed under the Shield and Guidance of the Sovereign Diſpoſer for the Happineſs of yourſelf and auguſt Family and of your People, will, we are perſuaded be the fervent Prayer of all your Majeſty's grateful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred.

[Preſented by Sir Henry Daſhwood, Bart. and Charles Moore, Eſq.]

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave humbly to expreſs our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late deſperate and diabolical Attempt which has been made againſt your ſacred Perſon. We cannot ſufficiently deſcribe the Horror and Indignation with which we heard that any one could be found atrocious enough to lift his Arm againſt a Life ſo precious to us all, nor our Gratitude to that Providence, whoſe merciful Interpoſition in the Protection of your Majeſty, has preſerved this Country from the grievous Calamity with which it was threatened. And we earneſtly Hope that the ſame Providence, liſtening to our conſtant Prayers, may ſtill continue to watch over and preſerve your Majeſty from every Danger, that he will avert every Blow that may be levelled againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, either by frantic Violence or deliberate Treachery, and that he will grant to us long to enjoy thoſe numberleſs Bleſſings which we derive from your mild and parental Government.

John Colling, Mayor.

Okehampton, 19th May, 1800.

[Preſented by R. Bateman Robſon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Freemen, the Miniſter, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt hearty Congratulations on your late Eſcape from the deſperate Attempt of a mad Aſſaſſin. A Life ſo precious to all your Subjects, we are willing to perſuade ourſelves, no one but a Wretch diveſted of all Senſe and Reaſon, would endeavour to ſhorten; and with Gratitude we acknowledge the Interpoſitions of Providence in repelling Aſſaults ſo often levelled at your ſacred Perſon.

May the ſame gracious Providence continue his protecting Care, and guard you againſt all open Attacks, and ſecret Conſpiracies, that you may long remain (what you have always hitherto been) a Bleſſing to your People, till at laſt, (but for their Sake at ſome remote Period,) you Exchange your earthly Crown for a more glorious one in a better Kingdom.

We therefore with all Zeal and Affection humbly offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations upon the happy Eſcape, which, by the Interpoſition of Providence, your Majeſty has experienced; and we earneſtly pray that the ſame kind Providence may long protect and preſerve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch who is ſo juſtly the Object of their Love and Reverence, and the Pattern to them of all Virtues.
